

Raunds Bridge Club Constitution

1. The club shall be known as Raunds Bridge Club, hereinafter referred to as “the club”.

OBJECTS

2. To provide opportunities for members to play and promote the game of Duplicate Bridge in Raunds and surrounding district.

3. To employ the funds of the club in such a manner as the Management Committee may deem in the best interest of the membership, having regard to the fact the club is a non-profit making body.

MEMBERSHIP

4. Membership shall be open to all persons whose residence or place of business is in the County of Northamptonshire or in adjacent counties. Players from elsewhere will not be unreasonably prevented from playing.

5. Membership of the club does not mean automatic membership of the English Bridge Union but the Management Committee may decide to join if it is deemed to be in the interest of the members.

6. A member of the club may be a member of other bridge clubs elsewhere.

7. The Management Committee, for reasons which it considers good and sufficient, may refuse membership to any person or renewal of membership of any member or suspend membership to any member for such a period as it might think fit. That person will have the right to appeal to the Management Committee within fourteen days of notification.

8. The Secretary of the club shall within seven days of the Management Committee’s decision to act under rule seven, notify the person concerned in writing of their decision.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

9. Membership. The annual subscription shall be such a sum as shall be determined at the Annual General Meeting and become due at the first playing session following the Annual General Meeting.

10. The Treasurer of the club is responsible for collecting the annual subscription. New members joining the club after the 30th April will also be required to pay the same annual subscription as other members up to the 31st of December. Thereafter, subscriptions for the year will be waived.

11. All annual subscriptions should be paid by no later than April 30th each year.

12. Table money will be charged at each bridge session, the amount being in accordance with whatever figure was agreed at the Annual General Meeting or Extraordinary General Meeting. Visitors will pay the same rate as members for the first ten weeks of their attendance but thereafter, will be asked to join the club for the usual annual fee.

MANAGEMENT

13. The day-to-day running of the club will be carried out by the Management Committee.
14. The Management Committee of the club shall consist of a Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer and two other members elected at the Annual General Meeting each year.
15. In the event of a committee member resigning their post or retiring, the Management Committee will appoint a replacement until the next Annual General Meeting.
16. The Committee may appoint a sub-committee for any specific purpose and members of such sub-committee need not be members of the Management Committee.
17. The Annual General Meeting shall be held in April each year. The agenda for the Annual General Meeting will be provided via email by the secretary two weeks prior to the Annual General Meeting. Only items on the agenda will be discussed. A hard copy of the agenda will be available from the Secretary upon request.
18. Members may submit items for the agenda via email or hard copy to the Secretary up to three weeks before the Annual General Meeting. All such items must have a proposer and seconder.
19. Seven days' notice shall be given for any Extraordinary General Meeting or for any Committee Meeting.
20. An Extraordinary General Meeting shall be called by an application in writing to the Secretary, supported by at least three members. The Management Committee shall also have the power to call an Extraordinary General Meeting.
21. The minimum number of attendees for a General Meeting shall be six, and for any Committee Meetings shall be three.
22. Nominations for officers of the Management Committee should be sent to the Secretary prior to the agenda of the Annual General Meeting being distributed in accordance with rule 17

VOTING

23. At all meetings, voting shall be by a show of hands unless a poll is requested by at least five members.
24. If the voting is tied, the Chairman shall have an additional vote
25. No alteration or addition to these rules shall be made except at an Annual General Meeting or an Extraordinary General Meeting convened for this purpose. The proposed alteration or addition shall be set out in full on the notice convening the meeting. No resolution concerning the alteration or addition to these rules shall be carried unless supported by a majority vote from the members present.

ACCOUNTS

26. The annual accounts will be drawn up by 15th March each year and then audited by a non-club member in time for the Annual General Meeting in early April. The balance sheet drawn up will show the previous year's figures for comparison. The Treasurer will then present balance sheet at the Annual General Meeting with enough duplicate copies for members present.
27. All money surplus to the Treasurer's requirements will be placed in the Raunds Bridge Club current account with the bank already appointed by the Committee.
28. Any payments made by the club from our bank account must be counter-signed by the treasurer and one other signatory appointed by the committee who has been approved by the bank.
